DON DELANEY

Don Delaney, who guided Lakeland Community College (Mentor, Ohio) to its third consecutive 20-victory season, has been selected Greater Cleveland College Coach-of-the-Year by the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He was selected over a strong field of two and four-year college mentors.

Dr. Charles Davis, President of Brewer State Community College, has been named to replace Dr. Virgil McCain as the President of the Alabama Junior College Conference, the governing body for Junior College athletics in the State of Alabama. Dr. McCain is the President of Sneed State Junior College.

SUNY at Farmingdale (above) won the Region XV Gymnastic title, and placed second at the National Meet held in Farmingdale, New York.

Ron Auer, a former student at Forest Park Community College, has been named assistant baseball coach at the college.

Bob Nelson, head basketball coach at Forest Park Community College, will receive a special distinguished service award from the Inner-City Black Athletic Association at the organization's All-Sports dinner. Nelson is being recognized by the group for his ability to build and maintain excellent human relations among the members of his Highlander basketball teams. Many players who have come from all-white and all-black teams have found it easy to adjust to a racially mixed situation under Nelson's coaching.
