

Repeat Win By Collister Leads Macomb to Women's Marathon Title

A second consecutive win by Nancy Collister led Macomb Community College (Warren, Mich.) to the championship of the women's division in the June 5 Marathon Championships at Oakton Community College (Des Plaines, Ill.).

Collister was clocked in 3:29:54.1 for the 26-mile, 385-yard race, very close to her 1991 winning time of 3:29:29. The sophomore joined Debbie Thomas (1984) on the national championship marathon roster for Macomb.

A third-place finish by Rhonda Linsky (3:37:48.7) and Jenny Koleski's eighth place (3:45:45.7) enabled Macomb (11 points) to edge defending women's team champion Lansing (Mich.) Community College (12). Brevard Community College (Cocoa, Fla.) finished with 32 points, and Vincennes (Ind.) University had 36 to complete the women's team competition.

Earning All-America honors were the top three finishers — Collister, Lansing's Sara Rott and Linsky.

It looked as if the men's division also might have a repeat winner until Oakton's Leszek Stoklosa came up with leg cramps approximately 22 miles into the race. Stoklosa was ahead by nearly four minutes when the cramps developed, but had to settle for fifth-place (2:44:15.5).

The men's individual winner was Kevin Sweeney, of Lansing, who crossed the finish line in 2:37:22.1. Also earning All-America honors were Oakton's Felix Gamez (2d, 2:38:33.9), Lansing's Scott Noecker (34d, 2:39:16.7), Macomb's Jim Nuemann (4th, 2:41:54.3), Stoklosa and Brevard's Pat Flynn (6th, 2:47:19.1).
